

Xavier Marin, Chairman of Fondations Capital, speaks at the Boao Forum for Asia Financial Cooperation Conference in London

Xavier Marin, Chairman of Fondations Capital, participated in the round table on the topic “Opening up the Capital Markets: Two-way Traffic – The prospect of Asian and European financial & capital markets opening up to each other: why is this an imperative now?” during the Boao Forum for Asia Financial Cooperation Conference, which took place in London on November 8th, 9th and 10th, 2015.

The underlying theme of the event drew on the cooperation between Asia and Europe on the financial field, offering a dialog platform for governments, enterprises and experts. The Boao Forum for Asia is chaired by Mr. Yasudo Fukuda, former Prime Minister of Japan, and the Secretary-General is Mr. Zhou Wenzhong, former Ambassador of the People’s Republic of China.

The round table included the following panelists:

- Mr. Gao Xiqing, Professor at the Tsinghua University and former President and Chief Investment Officer of China Investment Corporation,
- Mr. Xavier Marin, Chairman of Fondations Capital,
- Mr. David Marsh, Managing Director of the Official Monetary and Financial Institutions Forum,
- Mr. Wim Mijs, Chairman of the International Banking Federation,
- Mr. Arif Naqvi, Founder and Group Chief Executive of the Abraaj Group, and
- Mr. John Peace, Chairman of Standard Chartered PLC.

