

Aurélien Lancrenon promoted as Investment Director

Paris, 4th January 2016

Fondations Capital announces today the nomination of Aurélien Lancrenon as Investment Director.

Aurélien Lancrenon joined Fondations Capital in 2014. He is notably in charge of the management of Fondations Capital's investments in Alkern (largest independent producer of concrete prefabricated products in France and in Belgium), Buffet Crampon (second largest manufacturer and distributor of musical wind instruments in the world) and Mazarine (the leading French communication agency specialized in luxury and high-end brands).

Aurélien started his career in the mergers and acquisitions department of HSBC in London where he focused on Transport and Business Services. He then moved to Paris where he covered French sponsors and corporates with a focus on the Technology, Media and Telecom industries.

Aurélien is a graduate from EDHEC Business School.

About Fondations Capital

Fondations Capital manages c. 600 million Euros of assets through three funds (Fondations Capital I, LBO Partners Fund I and LBO Partners Fund II), investing in mid-size companies. Fondations Capital investment portfolio comprises 11 companies, representing aggregated revenues of 1.2 billion Euros and employing together more than 15,000 people. It includes notably Sepur, the second municipal waste collection and urban cleaning operator in the Île-de-France region, and Talentia, a publisher and integrator of enterprise software solutions. Acting as a committed investor, Fondations Capital is dedicated to responsibly creating value by transforming the size and scale of its portfolio companies through innovation, international development and industry consolidation.

www.fondationscapital.com